FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CORUS-SUPPORTED TV AND FILM PROPERTIES WIN 17 2006 LEO AWARDS

Terminal City Sweeps Ceremony with Six Awards

(May 14, 2006 – Toronto, Canada) Corus Entertainment is pleased to announce that it has added 17 LEO Awards to its award-winning lineup of programming at the 2006 LEO Awards Gala and Ceremony, held May 12 and 13 in Vancouver. Celebrating the best and brightest film and television talent and programs in British Columbia, Movie Central's critically acclaimed drama series Terminal City dominated the evening taking home six awards including Best Dramatic Series, Best Direction and Best Screenwriting; while YTV's hit series Being Ian, Zixx: Level II and W Network's *The Shopping Bags also snagged awards. In addition, the feature film Eve & the Fire Horse collected five awards and A Simple Curve was honoured with another two.

"Corus Entertainment congratulates all the 2006 LEO Award-winning television and film projects and talent," said Paul Robertson, President, Television, Corus Entertainment. "The range and quality of the television and film properties showcased at this year's Gala are a tribute to the programming and production that is being created in Western Canada. Corus is proud to play a key role in helping make the creation of high-quality Canadian television and film, like the ones honoured at the LEO's, a reality."
